Sir,

In reply to your letter No.G.6387/G.M.199-13-19 dated 14th February 1914 requesting to be furnished with specimen copies of the journals "Tathwa Prakasika" and Bhagyodaya, together with information as to the exact dates of their appearance and the status character and antecedents of their editors, I have the honour to forward herewith a copy of each of the journals published in January last.

2. It is reported that these issues were first published on 25th January 1914 and 20th January 1914 respectively.

3. Sri Mukunda Bhakti Nidhigalu, the editor of the first journal is reported to own lands assessed at Rs.45/- in the Inam village of Devar, Nanjungud Taluk, which he is said to have purchased recently. It is reported that he depends for a living on his Madhwa deciples and posseses a fair knowledge knowledge of Sanskrit and that his character is good.

4. Sanjivamma, the editor of the Bhagyodaya is the Head Mistress of the Shimoga Government Girls' School, on a monthly pay of Rs.25/-. She is said to have passed the Mysore Lower Secondary Examination in Kanarese and in Sanskrit. She has stated before the Shimoga Amildar that on account of the death of her brother and her father in February last, she could not publish the 2nd issue of the journal and that after her family circumstances and her pecuniary position are improved, she would try and continue the publication.
